

WITHYCOMBE RALEIGH C OF E PRIMARY SCHOOL, EXMOUTH

POLICY STATEMENT – COLLECTIVE WORSHIP

RATIONALE –

The Education Act of 1993 has kept the provision of the earlier 1988 Act, requiring all schools to provide a daily act of collective worship, to be broadly Christian, and for this to be so it should reflect the broad traditions of Christian belief.

As a Voluntary Controlled School we will have a daily act of Christian worship which reflects the customs and traditions of the Church of England, and hence the Trust Deed by which the school was originally founded.

AIMS AND PURPOSES –

- To give the children an understanding of Christian values
- To help create a caring family atmosphere
- To provide an opportunity for pupils to worship God
- To enable pupils to experience a sense of mystery, awe and wonder
- To advance religious understanding, giving special status to Jesus Christ
- To encourage tolerance and respect for other people and the world around us
- To build self esteem for individuals
- To enhance community spirit within the school and its locality
- To celebrate ideals, principles and the achievements of the children
- To encourage a sense of personal and social responsibility
- To explore feelings and emotions in a challenging but secure atmosphere
- To allow the skills for worship to be acquired, practised and developed; considering the importance of prayer, meditation and silence
- To reinforce positive attitudes
- To develop children's skills of reflection
- To provide a Christian framework for the delivery of the Every Child Matters framework

Our school worship should reflect children's own experience and give opportunities for reflection, reverence, joy, sorrow, praise, thankfulness, compassion and a feeling of pride. There must be a pattern and structure, but also a variety of flexibility of approach. Participation and response should be encouraged, whether through doing, listening or joining in the language and the content must be appropriate but also challenging. Pupils' views on Collective Acts of Worship will be sought annually.
